

Nelly Olivas

Administrative Assistant

Nelly Olivas is NRIC's administrative assistant and assists program leadership in organizational tasks to support the mission of supporting advanced reactor development. Nelly comes with more than six years of administrative experience as well as work in legal and compliance. She is enthusiastic about joining a national laboratory and supporting clean energy research. She is an Idaho native and enjoys the beautiful summer days that Idaho has to offer. Nelly enjoys traveling and spending time with family and friends.